many are the hours in which i have pondered upon the story that is set forth in the following pages i trust that my instincts are not awry when they prompt me to leave the account in simplicity as it was handed to me and the ms itself you must picture me when first it was given into my care turning it over curiously and making a swift jerky examination a small book it is but thick and all save the last few pages filled with a quaint but legible handwriting and writ very close i have the queer faint pit water smell of it in my nostrils now as i write and my fingers have subconscious memories of the soft cloggy feel of the long damp pages i read and in reading lifted the curtains of the impossible that blind the mind and looked out into the unknown amid stiff abrupt sentences i wandered and presently i had no fault to charge against their abrupt tellings for better far than my own ambitious phrasing is this mutilated story capable of bringing home all that the old recluse of the vanished house had striven to tell of the simple stiffly given account of weird and extraordinary matters i will say little it lies before you the inner story must be uncovered personally by each reader according to ability and desire and even should any fail to see as now i see the shadowed picture and conception of that to which one may well give the accepted titles of heaven and hell yet can i promise certain thrills merely taking the story as a story

some vols include supplemental journals of such proceedings of the sessions as during the time they were depending were ordered to be kept secret and respecting which the injunction of secrecy was afterwards taken off by the order of the house
